

Native American Identities In a Global Era

Wednesday, November 2

Student Resources Center (SRC) 2000

8:45 a.m. Welcome

9:00 a.m.

“Standing Rock and Native Identity”

David Bender, American Indian Center of Chicago

10 a.m.

“Maya Artisans in the Globalized World”

Dr. Mary Katherine Scott, University of Wyoming

11 a.m.

“Altars by the Lake” film and presentation
Dr. Matthew Krystal, North Central College

1 p.m.

Hip Hop and Poetry Performances

Tall Paul, Anishinaabe/Oneida Hip Hop artist and Tanaya Winder, Southern Ute/Duckwater
Shoshone/Pyramid Lake Paiute Nations poet

2:30 p.m.

“The Movement for Indigenous Rights in the Highlands of Bolivia”

Dr. Peter Hudis, Oakton Community College

3:30 p.m.

“Native Identities”

Panel discussion by symposium presenters

Original artwork by Daniel Ponce
“Mixcoatl” (2014)

Thursday, November 3

11:30 a.m. (MAC 140)

COD Chamber Singers: Performance,
Native American inspired music

2 p.m. (HSC 1234)

“Dream People of the Amazon”

Film screening and Skype interview with Director Larry Lansburgh.

Friday, November 4

Noon (MAC 140)

“Reflections on Native American Music”

Dr. Larry Ward, College of DuPage

Sponsored by COD Native American and Latin American Studies Committees, Liberal Arts Division and Latino Outreach Center

All events are free and open to the public. Contact David Ouellette (Ouellette@cod.edu) or John Paris (paris@cod.edu) for info. For Americans with Disabilities Act Accommodations, call (630) 942-2141 (voice) or (630) 858-9692 (TDD).